

I have been part of Sinfonia since 2013, serving as Board President. Music has played a large part in my life, playing clarinet for twenty years. I am a retired educator, classroom teacher for 20 years and a building administrator for twenty-one years. My wife, Linda, and I have two children, four grandchildren and one great grandchild. I enjoy listening to our Sinfonia plus skiing, biking and volunteering fill my time.