

CAMERATA SINGERS

Choral Masterpiece Series directed by Maestro Allan Birney

The Camerata Singers, founded in 1972 by Dr. Allan Birney, is an integral part of the Lehigh Valley's arts community, providing several programs of classical and contemporary choral music each year. The 90 or so singers of the choir are serious musicians who range from college students to senior citizens, with a wide variety of occupations. The group is especially dedicated to preserving our rich musical heritage with performances that include superior instrumental accompaniment and soloists.

The Sinfonia exists to present quality classical music in enjoyable ways for diverse audiences. We do so as economically as possible, offering options that keep tickets prices affordable. The reality is, however, that ticket prices alone can't sustain our organization. We rely greatly on contributions from foundations, government sources, corporations and individuals—people like you, who care about supporting live performances that enlighten and entertain.

When you call or write to order your tickets, or any time during the year, please consider making a tax-deductible donation to the Sinfonia. Every gift of $25 or $50 means so much. Smaller gifts, larger gifts—ALL are treasured and used wisely. Thank you for helping to keep the music alive.
