YOUR CHOIR IS INVITED TO PARTICIPATE IN THIS SPECIAL COMMUNITY EVENT . . .

FAITH! - Inspired by the popular NBC television series, "Clash of the Choirs" is designed to bring choirs and singing ensembles from Allentown churches together for a day of friendly competition and good will. This kick-off to February 2010's Black History Month is an opportunity for you and your choir to perform traditional and contemporary gospel music and to interact with other singers, members of the community, as well as family and friends.

The concert audience will be able to vote for its favorite choir. The top choirs in Gospel and Youth Divisions will be awarded monetary prizes for a charity of their choice! Choirs are encouraged to have their church groups, friends and families attend this event.

SCHEDULE

Saturday (pre-scheduled AM/PM)

A panel of judges will listen to all registered choirs performing three selections: two of their choice and also a rendition of Total Praise by Richard Smallwood.

Saturday 5 PM

Pre-concert reception, where the panel of judges will recommend choirs to be invited to perform in the evening concert.

Saturday 7:30 PM

Musicians from the PA Sinfonia Orchestra will perform pieces written by African-American composers, with presentations from the chosen choirs, interspersed throughout.

Don't miss this opportunity
