

Christine Fish Moulton, professor of flute at Mansfield University of PA, is a licensed Body Mapping Educator and trained in the Timani method, a somatic movement method for musicians. She is a member of the Manhattan Contemporary Chamber Ensemble (MCCE), Pennsylvania Sinfonia Orchestra & Valley Vivaldi and the annual Finger Lakes Chamber Music Festival. Solo and chamber music concerts include WSKG TV's Expressions & WXXI, WVIA, WCNY public radio stations, NYC's Symphony Space, Carnegie Hall's Weill and Zankel Halls and National Flute Conventions in Phoenix, Orlando, San Diego & Las Vegas. She regularly presents workshops at flute fairs and schools in the northeast and serves as secretary of the Marcel Moyse Society.

